

Sustainable
Economies
Law Center

Education, research, advice, and advocacy for just and resilient local economies.

2323 Broadway, Oakland, CA 94612
www.theSELC.org

Legal Resources for
Cottage Food Operations, Urban
Farms, and other Food Enterprises

Cottage Food Operations

<http://www.thesecl.org/cottage-food-laws/>

Click on the Summary and the FAQ.

General Food Enterprise

http://www.thesecl.org/food_resources

Browse lots of materials, including our Legal Eats booklet that covers a wide range of legal topics for small food enterprises. Check back for updates - we update the Legal Eats booklet once or twice per year and we add other resources to this page occasionally.

Need Legal Advice for your food enterprise?

Come to our donation-based, Resilient Communities Legal Cafe and speak to a lawyer about your organization, enterprise, project, or idea! See our schedule at <http://www.thesecl.org/cafe>. Reservations can be made online. Reservations are recommended but not required.

Legislative Advocacy

SELC has been involved in numerous policy advocacy campaigns. Learn about some of our past campaigns at <http://www.thesecl.org/food>.

Contact

For legal advice please come to the Legal Cafe, as our staff generally cannot provide legal advice over the phone or by email.

For general inquiries:

Christina Oatfield
SELC Policy Director and Food Program Co-Lead
Christina@thesecl.org

Sustainable
Economies
Law Center

Education, research, advice, and advocacy for
just and resilient local economies.

2323 Broadway, Oakland, CA 94612
www.theSELC.org

Legal Resources for
Cottage Food Operations, Urban
Farms, and other Food Enterprises

Cottage Food Operations

<http://www.thesecl.org/cottage-food-laws/>

Click on the Summary and the FAQ.

General Food Enterprise

http://www.thesecl.org/food_resources

Browse lots of materials, including our Legal Eats booklet that covers a wide range of legal topics for small food enterprises. Check back for updates - we update the Legal Eats booklet once or twice per year and we add other resources to this page occasionally.

Need Legal Advice for your food enterprise?

Come to our donation-based, Resilient Communities Legal Cafe and speak to a lawyer about your organization, enterprise, project, or idea! See our schedule at <http://www.thesecl.org/cafe>. Reservations can be made online. Reservations are recommended but not required.

Legislative Advocacy

SELC has been involved in numerous policy advocacy campaigns. Learn about some of our past campaigns at <http://www.thesecl.org/food>.

Contact

For legal advice please come to the Legal Cafe, as our staff generally cannot provide legal advice over the phone or by email.

For general inquiries:

Christina Oatfield
SELC Policy Director and Food Program Co-Lead
Christina@thesecl.org